21st Century Community Learning Center YPQA Basics

Francis Tuttle Portland Campus
3500 NW 150th St., Oklahoma City, OK

This training is designed for new grantees and new directors. The Youth Program Quality Assessment (YPQA) training familiarizes you with the how and why of this tool. The YPAQ is a research validated instrument and field tested tool that will help you evaluate program quality and identify staff training needs. The tool focuses on Safe Environment, Supportive Environment, Interaction, and Engagement. It is a valuable tool for setting standards and improvement planning. The training consists of interactive activities to familiarize you with the tool as well as practice in scoring.

A full service cafeteria will be available for participants at the Francis Tuttle Career and Technology Center.
