

A Treasure Hunt through the...
Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts & Literacy
in History/Social Studies, Science and Technical Studies

Directions: Knowing where to find information is just as important as knowing the information. A question can be answered easily and effectively when one knows how to use the available tools. Using the Common Core State Standards in ELA, search with others at your table (in groups of 2, 3, or 4) to navigate through this new document and find the answers to the following questions...

1. According to the Table of Contents what are the three types of Reading Standards in the K-5 grade cluster?
 1. Literary
 2. Informative
 3. Foundations

2. Which of the three types of Reading Standards found in the K-5 Reading Cluster do not exist in the 6-12 clusters? Foundations

3. Finish this statement from the Introduction:
It is important to note that the 6-12 literacy standards in history/social studies, science, and technical studies are not meant to replace content standards in those areas but rather to supplement them.
Highlight this statement in the standards.

4. What does CCR stand for in the Introduction? Underline the place in the CCSS where you found this information. College and Career Readiness

5. Complete this statement from the Key Design Considerations section:
Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade specific standards, retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades, and work steadily toward meeting the more general expectations described by the College and Career Readiness standards.
Highlight this statement in the standards.

According to Key Design Considerations what is another document (besides the CCSS) that calls for a special emphasis on informational text? The 2009 Reading Framework of the National Assessment of Educational Progress.
Highlight the title of this document for future reference.

6. Find the Distribution of Literary and Informational Passages by Grade in the 2009 NAEP Reading Framework and the Distribution of Communicative Purposes by Grade in the 2011 NAEP Writing Framework charts and mark them with sticky notes.

7. Read the What is Not Covered by the Standards section and record both an AHA! and an OH NO! thought that you have below:

AHA! _____

OH NO! _____

8. Finish the following statements about Students Who are College and Career Ready:

They demonstrate independence

They build strong content knowledge

They respond to the varying demands of audience, task, purpose, and discipline

They comprehend as well as critique

They value evidence

They use technology and digital media strategically and capably

They come to understand other perspectives and cultures

9. According to How to Read This Document what is included in each of the three Appendices in the CCSS?

A-supplementary material on reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language as well as a glossary of key terms

B-text exemplars illustrating the complexity, quality, and range of reading appropriate for various grade levels with accompanying sample performance tasks

C-annotated samples demonstrating at least adequate performance in student writing at various grade levels

10. Mark the first page (10, 18, 22, 25, 35, 41, 48, 51, 60, and 63) of each Standard Strand in the CCSS with a sticky note.

11. What are the four specific categories by which each of the standard strands are organized? One has been filled in for you.
