I. INTRODUCTION:

Local educational agencies (LEAs) must adopt policies and procedures consistent with State and federal requirements and are responsible for implementing programs that comply with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) Part B. General supervision of LEAs is carried out at the state level. The Oklahoma State Department of Education (OSDE), Special Education Services (SES) conducted an on-site concern specific compliance review on December 15, 2010. The OSDE-SES reviewed the following area(s): Significant Disproportionality. The compliance review consisted of IDEA Part B record reviews and personnel interviews.

Hodgen Public School District is a dependent school district serving 50 children with disabilities, ages three through 14, as reported on their October 2009, Child Count Report.

Content: "This district will continue to be in compliance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) Part B and applicable State and federal regulations and assist in developing strategies to improve results for children with disabilities. The district will also continue to provide a free appropriate education (FAPE) in the least restrictive environment, with parent participation, and in accordance with procedural safeguards under IDEA Part B."

IV. OTHER INFORMATION:

Subsequent monitoring activities may be initiated as necessary to ensure the LEA's compliance is consistent with policies, procedures, and regulations and in accordance with the state educational agency's responsibilities required by 34 CFR § 300.149.

Under the Open Records Act, it may be necessary for the LEA or the OSDE to provide access to this public document upon request. In the event that the OSDE receives such a request, it will seek to protect, to the extent provided by law, personally identifiable information, which, if released, could constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy and confidentiality.

In accordance with 34 CFR § 300.212, Public Information, the LEA will make such public documents, relating to the eligibility of the agency under IDEA Part B, available to the parents of children with disabilities and to the general public, as necessary.
