

Title I, Part A Set-Asides Sliding Scale Guidance

As referenced in Oklahoma’s approved ESEA Flexibility Request and the ESEA Frequently Asked Questions, districts with Title I Priority and Focus Schools will be required to set aside a percentage of the LEA’s Title I, Part A allocation in order to implement interventions in these schools. Additionally, districts with Title I Targeted Intervention Schools may choose to set aside a percentage of the LEA’s Title I Part A allocation in order to implement interventions in these schools.

The sliding scales below are a recommendation of the Oklahoma State Department of Education on what percentages will likely be necessary to implement the required interventions. Districts that choose to set aside a smaller percentage than recommended will need to provide justification for that request.

Districts with Title I Priority and Focus Schools must set aside 5% of the LEA’s Title I, Part A allocation for school choice options. Please see the Frequently Asked Questions for information regarding which children are eligible for school choice options that must be provided by the district.
