

Dear Teacher:

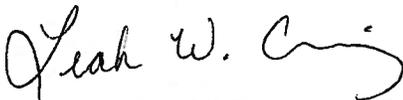

This letter is to inform you of a fantastic learning opportunity for your students and a helpful tool for you! The Oklahoma History Center in Oklahoma City offers a travelling trunk program that brings the museum to the classroom, helping you bring the past to life for students. Included in every trunk is a curriculum guide, following state standards, that gives you background information and supplemental activities and worksheets. Trunks may also feature trade books and videos.

Our trunks focus on social studies curriculum, but also include language arts, math, and science. The following is a list of the trunks we currently offer to teachers:

One Room Schoolhouse
14 Flags over Oklahoma
Archaeology
Civil War
Colonial Agriculture
Continental Soldier (American Revolution)
Cowboy
Dust Bowl & the 1930s
Explorers of Oklahoma
Fur Trade in Oklahoma
Games
Oklahoma Department of Transportation
Oil & Gas
Oklahoma Agriculture
Oklahoma Symbols
Okie Tales Cowboy
Okie Tales Land Run

This list changes frequently, so be sure to check our website for an updated trunk list! Trunks are free to all teachers and can be picked up at the History Center, or shipped to your school for the cost of shipping. Trunks can be checked out for one week at a time.
