

2012-2013 Reading Sufficiency Act (RSA)

Timeline

School districts must update their district and site RSA plans to meet the requirements for the reading goal, required assessments, and reporting for the 2012-2013 school year.

Monday, October 1, 2012

- Submit current annual goal status based on 2012 third-grade criterion-referenced test reading scores. Data is submitted online through the school district reporting site on the State Department of Education (SDE) Web site.

- Submit number of students identified for reading difficulties, based on approved screening assessments. Data is submitted online through the school district reporting site on the SDE Web site. (Count will include all eligible students from kindergarten through third grade).

Friday, November 30, 2012

- Districts with one or more sites in school improvement status submit updated district RSA Plan to the Office of Instruction of the SDE.

- Districts with one or more sites which did not achieve the required 2012 annual reading goal submit updated district RSA Plan to the Office of Instruction of the SDE.

By end of Second Quarter

- Provide notification to parents of students reading below grade level with the following information: reading level of the student, program of reading instruction, and the potential need to participate in a Summer Academy Reading Program.
