

Angela McKenna

Edmond Public Schools
Sequoyah Middle School

■ 2013 Oklahoma Teacher of the Year Finalist

"Every child has a voice. It is my job to help find that voice, celebrate its uniqueness, and encourage its growth."

Educational Preparation

B.A. in Music Education, the University of Central Oklahoma
National Board Certified Teacher

Current Teaching Position

6th–8th Grade Choral Music, Show Choir, and Jazz Choir

Years of Experience

15 years in present position
15 years total

Philosophy of Teaching

"There is no higher calling than that of a teacher.
Teachers have the daunting task of shaping the future.
This is not a task to take lightly, but to passionately embrace."

Oklahoma Teacher of the Year Message

"Oklahoma is a state that has proven its ability to work together and build one another up. As educators, we must encourage one another and work together to seek out the best for our students. We must exhaust all our resources in order to give every student the best we have to offer."

