

Lee Ann Stone

Woodward Public Schools
Woodward Early Childhood Center

■ 2013 Oklahoma Teacher of the Year Finalist

"In a Kindergarten classroom, everything that happens offers a teachable moment, so as the day progresses, I am inundated with opportunities for engaging my students in some kind of discovery. There is nothing more exciting and rewarding for me than to watch them apply their knowledge and make those all-important learning connections!"

Educational Preparation

B.S. in Elementary Education from the University of Oklahoma

Current Teaching Position

Kindergarten

Years of Experience

19.5 years in present position

21.5 years total

Philosophy of Teaching

"The teaching profession is the most gratifying job in the world, but it is so much more than just a job. Watching my students as they grow and learn is an incredibly rewarding experience and I cherish the rare opportunity that teaching gives me to nurture their minds and spirits."

Oklahoma Teacher of the Year Message

"Public school teachers are nurturing and promoting student learning in Oklahoma classrooms every single day. Each day I work to live up to that awesome responsibility . . . to make a positive difference in my students' lives by sending them on equipped for the next venture in their school journey."

