Welcome to Autism Links

Traci Sutton, M.S., CCC-SLP

This issue focuses on practical ideas and tools to support students with ASD in various learning environments. Many videos are included to demonstrate the use of common supports.

AUTISM INTERNET MODULES:
http://cdd.unm.edu/swan/autism_course/about/index.htm
The website provides teaching modules that cover ASD Characteristics, Assessment, Academic, Behavioral, Communication, Environmental, Sensory, and Social Interventions. It is a great resource for providing information to para-professionals, administrators, and general education teachers about ASD.

Additional websites to increase your knowledge about ASD by various topics:

NDAR National Database for Autism Research
NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH
Serving the autism research community

http://www.ndar.nih.gov/

This is a short video that explains the database researchers are using to further their research of ASD. It utilizes information submitted by families to gather data.
