RE: S.B. 189

SUBJECT: State Budgeting

Senate Bill 189 becomes effective July 1, 2015. This bill creates the Oklahoma Performance Informed Budget and Transparency Act of 2015.

- Current law directs that each state agency is to present an itemized request showing the amount needed for the upcoming fiscal year to the Office of Management and Enterprise Services (OMES) and the state Legislature. Budgets are to be presented to include zero-based budgeting techniques.
- Section 2: The budget presented by each agency for each fiscal year must include an analysis of existing and proposed programs using performance-informed budgeting techniques, instead of zero-based budgeting techniques.
- Section 3: Directs the Legislative Oversight Committee on State Budget Performance to implement an ongoing evaluation review procedure based on performance-informed budgeting, instead of zero-based budgeting techniques.
 - Current law details the Legislators that will serve on the Legislative Oversight Committee. The committee can function as a committee even when the Legislature is not in session. The duties of the committee can be performed by the Appropriations Committee chair in the Senate and the Appropriations and Budget Committee chair in the House of Representatives.
- Section 4: Requires any statutory entity that is under review for sunset to present a performance-informed operating budget review and summary, instead of a zero-based budget.

S.B. 549

RE: S.B. 549

SUBJECT: State Officers

Senate Bill 549 becomes effective August 20, 2015. The Governor vetoed S.B. 549 on May 8, 2015, which was overridden by the Legislature on May 20, 2015. This bill decouples the salaries of statewide elected officials with the salaries of judicial officials.

- Current law sets the salaries of all statewide elected officials, including the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in accordance with salaries for judicial officials.
- Section 1: Eliminates all language that connected statewide elected officials' salaries to judicial salaries. Instead, beginning in January 2016, the salary for each statewide elected official is set at the amount that they are currently receiving in 2015. That amount for the State Superintendent of Public Instruction is $124,373.

ENROLLED SENATE BILL NO. 549:

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 549.

Senate Bill 549 (Bill) dramatically alters how future elected State officers are to be paid. It decouples State officers' salaries from judicial salaries, and instead, codifies a specific and fixed annual salary for each officer, including the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Attorney General, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Corporation Commissioners, the State Treasurer, the State Auditor and Inspector, the State Insurance Commissioner, and the Commissioner of Labor (collectively referred to as "State Officers").

There are two significant deficiencies that compel me to veto this Bill. First, recent compensation reform initiatives have discarded the practice of codifying State employee salaries for good reason: fixing salary in statute tends to calcify salaries without regard to such pertinent considerations as inflation; the current fiscal health of the State; and most importantly, each particular employee's performance.

ENROLLED SENATE BILL NO. 549:

That is why neutral third-party compensation boards determine the salaries of officials in the other two co-equal branches of Oklahoma government, the Judiciary and the Legislature. These boards are comprised of representatives from a wide swath of our State's citizenry—including labor and civic organizations, communications media and retail business, agriculture, nonstate-supported educational institutions, and religious organizations. As such, the boards emphasize the fact that it is the people of this great State who are the true bosses of the leaders they elect.

It would be better policy to create a new and distinct compensation board for State Officers in the Oklahoma Statutes. In the meantime, however, I cannot approve this Bill. To do so would strip State Officers' compensation decisions from being made at least by a neutral and representative board, that being the Board on Judicial Compensation, which currently sets the salaries to which State Officers' salaries are tied.
