Walters Names Chaya Raichik of “Libs of TikTok” to Library Media Advisory Committee

Oklahoma City, Okla – State Superintendent Ryan Walters has issued the following statement announcing the appointment of Chaya Raichik, the woman behind the “Libs of TikTok” account on X (formerly Twitter), to OSDE’s Library Media Advisory Committee:

“Chaya is on the front lines showing the world exactly what the radical left is all about – lowering standards, porn in schools, and pushing woke indoctrination on our kids,” said Walters. “Because of her work, families across the country know just what is going on in schools around the country. Her unique perspective is invaluable as part of my plan to make Oklahoma schools safer for kids and friendly to parents. Chaya has a much-needed and powerful voice as well as a tremendous platform that will benefit Oklahoma students and their families.”
