Walters Statement Regarding Oklahoma Supreme Court Case on Religious Liberty

Oklahoma City, Okla – State Superintendent Ryan Walters has issued the following statement regarding today’s action by the Oklahoma Supreme Court denying OSDE’s intervention in a case involving the approval of St. Isidore of Seville Catholic Virtual School:

“This decision by the Oklahoma Supreme Court is out of step with Oklahomans and our classrooms. I’m extremely disappointed in their inability to do the right thing for families and kids. This is only one skirmish and I will not stop fighting for religious liberty.”
