OKLAHOMA STATE REGENTS
FOR HIGHER EDUCATION
Improving our future by degrees

OKLAHOMA STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
— CHAMPION EXCELLENCE —

Keynote Speaker: Emeka Nnaka

Emeka Nnaka is a professional motivational speaker and leading advocate for individuals with physical challenges. He brings a message of determination, inspiration, and hope to audiences of all ages, young and old.

While playing in a semi-pro football game, at the age of 21, Emeka sustained a career-ending neck and spinal cord injury that left him paralyzed from his chest down. In the face of the most extreme of circumstances, he chose not to give in and not give up.

Emeka is uniquely qualified to present life, its challenges, and its opportunities from the perspective of someone who found strength through tremendous adversity.

He has addressed audiences of several thousand at events across the U.S. including schools, professional groups, and corporate events.

Emeka serves as an advocate for the physically challenged on the local, state, and national levels. Recently, he was featured on National Public Radio's (NPR) "All Things Considered," where he discussed the Americans with Disabilities Act on its 25th anniversary for a national audience.

He is an Ambassador for the Tulsa Area United Way, playing a key role in fundraising, marketing, and community investments for one of the nation's largest non-profit organizations. He is involved with the Center for Individuals with Physical Challenges, where he leads the Spinal Cord Injury

Support Group, provides personal training for persons with disabilities, and gives presentations to donor and volunteer groups. He has also served as a Youth Advisor and Men's Ministry Coordinator for Victory Christian Church, which has one of the largest nondenominational congregations in the Midwest. He graduated with his bachelor's degree in Rehabilitation Services from Langston University and is currently studying to receive his master's in Human Relations from Oklahoma University in Tulsa. As a speaker, coach, and advocate, Emeka inspires others to find hope, take action in their lives, and live beyond the labels of their circumstances.

CONFERENCE WELCOME

Welcome to Oklahoma's 16th annual For Counselors Only Conference co-sponsored by the Oklahoma Department of Career and Technology Education, the Oklahoma Regents for Higher Education and the Oklahoma State Department of Education. We are honored to have you join us for this annual focus on the critical role counselors perform in our schools every day.

By attending this conference, you are sending a message to your colleagues, supervisors and the counseling community that your professional development is important and necessary to improving the services students receive. As a school counselor, you are a vital school leader in the education community.

We encourage you at this time to connect and network with the Oklahoma school counseling community. We hope today provides you with sessions focusing on effective programs, professional advocacy and the tools needed to provide results showing the impact of school counseling programs. We also hope it allows you stay current with education reform and the challenges facing students. Enjoy your day!

For Counselors Only Conference

Sessions A1-A9 10:30-11:20

A1 – One Trusted Adult

*Levi Patrick – Curriculum & Instruction
Shana Classen – Director of Health & PE,
Oklahoma State Department of Education*

Ballroom 1

Even the smallest actions can create trust and strengthen relationships among students and adults in the school setting. Come discuss the obligation we all have to ensure our students have the opportunity to learn in a safe and healthy environment.

Target Audience: All

A2 – Understanding 504: The School Counselor's Role

Claudia Otto, Ph.D. – Oklahoma State University, Clinical Assistant Professor, Special Education

Ballroom 2

It is important to consider the big picture of what the 504 plan means to students with disabilities. This session will help describe what a 504 team should broadly consider when constructing an appropriate and inclusive educational program for a students with disabilities. Presented information will help counselors better understand the 504 plan and ideas for advocating and providing counseling and guidance services in a nondiscriminatory manner for students with disabilities.

Target Audience: All

A3 – ICAP & Internships

*Michelle Wallace – Community Partnership Adviser
Meggan Wilson – Director of Academic Services,
Shawnee Public Schools*

Ballroom 3AB

This session will discuss the phases needed to bring an internship class to your high school for ICAP purposes. From the early stages of planning and promoting to the actual implementation of placing students in internships will be discussed.

Target Audience: High School

A4 – Students with a Purpose

*Nikki Jolly – School Counselor
Kelly Howell – Behavior Tech,
Bixby Public Schools*

Ballroom 3C

A student-led coffee shop has brought purpose to our schools most challenging students. After trauma-informed training, it was apparent that small groups were building relationships with students, but they still needed a purpose. Through the Spartan Coffee Shop these students have learned to trust, accept challenges, offer grace and be resilient. We have watched tardies decrease and attendance and positive behavior increase. They have become self advocates and leaders. Feedback from parents has confirmed that the progress made reaches beyond the walls of our school.

A5 – OK Career Guide –

Everything You Need to Know to Get Started

John Milroy – Kuder Inc., Vice President of Client Relations

Meeting Room 1

Looking at OK Career Guide, powered by Kuder, for the first time or with fresh eyes? Join us for a comprehensive look at this robust online system available for all Oklahomans to explore and plan for the future. You'll get an overview of each component in the system as well as a highlight of the newest features that enable students to dream big and plan accordingly.

Target Audience: Middle-High School

A6 – Implementing the Individual Career Academic Planning Process

*Marissa Lightsey – Oklahoma State Department of Education,
Executive Director, College and Career Readiness*

Meeting Room 2

The need for students to create postsecondary plans while still in school is clear. Thankfully all Oklahoma students will complete the individual career academic planning process before graduation to prepare them for postsecondary success. Join us as we discuss best practices, barriers and innovative ideas for creating a meaningful ICAP process for your students.

A7 – Elementary Career Awareness – Kuder GALAXY

Nathan Brubaker, Oklahoma Department of Career and Technology Education, Galaxy Coordinator

Meeting Room 3A

Galaxy is a space-themed, online career awareness platform that enables students in prekindergarten through fifth grade to learn through play, videos, activities, games and rewards. Rooted in Holland's theories on career development, Galaxy asks age appropriate questions like "What is work? Why do people work? What tools and skills are used at work?" and more. Today's session will provide implementation strategies and training on how it works for teachers and students.

Target Audience: Elementary

A8 – Higher Education Policy Rundown: Admission, Concurrent and Beyond

Dr. Kyle Foster – Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

Meeting Room 3B

This session is an overview of State Regents' policies related to college admissions, course placement, concurrent enrollment and other issues. The goal is to help counselors gain familiarity with policies as they work with students and parents to make decisions about college. There will be time for questions.

Target Audience: All

A9 – Academic Counseling: So ... What About This?

Petra Woodard – Academic Counseling, Oklahoma State

Department of Education

Meeting Room 3C

Counseling at the secondary level can be very complex. Transcripts, credits, scheduling, concurrent, CareerTech, eligibility, state reports, testing, 504s, IEPs, ICAP, parents, teachers, principals, college recruiters, athletic recruiters, military recruiters -- the list goes on and on. How do you manage all of the things that consume your time and prohibit you from meaningfully engaging with the ones you want to help most -- students? Bring your questions and concerns for this collaborative session to share best practices that may help calm the raging waters that often cause overwhelming waves in the world of high school counseling.

Target Audience: High School

Sessions B 1-9 11:30-12:20

B1 – Work-Based Learning Opportunities through CareerTech: Tech Center and High School Campus Best Practices

Panel Discussion

Ballroom 1

Students who are currently enrolled in CTE programs either at a CareerTech technology center campus or in high school courses like ag, FACS, business and STEM are probably already involved in activities that will meet the work-based learning requirement for the graduating class of 2023. This panel discussion will showcase best practices and activities offered by CTE teachers around the state, with opportunities for Q&A.

Target Audience: High School

B2 – Coachable Trauma Informed Strategies

Beth Whittle – Oklahoma State Department of Education,

Executive Director of Counseling

Ballroom 2

During this session you will learn coachable trauma-informed regulation techniques and strategies to take back to your schools for implementation and training. You will also learn the neuroscience behind how and why these strategies work with all students, not just those who have experienced adversity.

Target Audience: All

B3 – What's New in OK Career Guide?

AJ Crowell, Oklahoma Department of Career and Technology Education, OK Career Guide Coordinator

Ballroom 3AB

You may already be familiar with OK Career Guide, an easy online tool to help students prepare for the next steps in their education and career planning journeys. This session will focus on the newest features in the system, including the all new ICAP Oklahoma component, as well as address frequently asked questions such as how to run the new ICAP reports, how to customize the ICAP and Ed Plan features and how to get students and admins to use the system.

Target Audience: Middle-High School

B4 – Money Management and College Access

Tools from OCAP

Sara Lorenzen and Letha Huddleston – Oklahoma College Assistance Program, Outreach Specialists

Ballroom 3C

Learn about free resources available through Oklahoma Money Matters, the financial literacy initiative of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. We'll discuss the range of materials available to assist in preparing students for their financial lives after high school. Following OKMM, learn about the resources available at UCanGo2.org, where you'll find numerous free materials created to assist middle school and high school students with planning, preparing and paying for college.

Target Audience: High School

B5 – Creating Students Who Lead Through Teach and Lead Oklahoma

Missy Foster – Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, Teacher Recruiter

Meeting Room 1

In this session, discover how Teach and Lead Oklahoma can be offered in your high school to build future teachers, one student at a time. Learn about course description and how to showcase leadership and internship components.

Target Audience: High School

B6 – Counselor in the Mirror: A Reflection and Confession

Valerie McMurry – Metro Technology Centers, Director, Community Outreach and Wellness

Meeting Room 2

This interactive workshop will stimulate your thought process on the way you see yourself in mind, body and spirit. Let's reflect and create your image: Who do you want to see?

Target Audience: All

B7 – Community Partnerships and Your District

Michael Phillips – Community Renewal of Pottawatomie County, Community Coordinator

Meeting Room 3A

This session will highlight our partnership as a community organization with Shawnee Public Schools, offering 20 clubs reaching 478 students. We will present a character education program developed for elementary schools that elevates the visibility of caring for the entire campus. The program is changing the culture at our elementary schools. We will discuss ways for districts to find helpers in the community to reproduce similar results.

Target Audience: Elementary

B8 – Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child

Shana Classen – Oklahoma State Department of Education, Director of Health and PE

Meeting Room 3B

The Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child model is an ecological approach to learning and health. This presentation will provide knowledge of the 10 components, benefits of implementing the model and guidance on implementation strategies.

Target Audience: All

B9 – Thanksgiving, Graduation and Cultural Sensitivity

Matt Higdon – Citizen Potawatomi Nation, College Adviser

Meeting Room 3C

In this session we will discuss culturally appropriate lessons and activities for early elementary grades for Thanksgiving specifically but also throughout the school year. There will also be discussion concerning tribal regalia at high school graduation with time for questions.

Meeting Room 3A

Attendees will learn more about ACT's new online data platform, subject area testing for September 2020, counselor resources and the condition of college and career readiness for 2019 Oklahoma graduates.

Target Audience: High School

Bonus 2 – NO COST Digital SEL & Prevention Lessons for First through 12th Grades

Wyjuana Montgomery – EVERFI

Meeting 3b

EVERFI is a well-respected provider of supplemental digital learning programs for educators all across Oklahoma. These resources are available at no cost and can be used in traditional classroom settings, small groups or in-school suspension and alternative-to-suspension programs. Programs are standards-aligned and evidence-informed.

Target Audience: All

Bonus 3 – Gratitude Changes Everything

Erin Nation – Piedmont Public Schools, School Counselor

Ballroom 3C

Research has shown the power of daily gratitude. Learn how "Gratitude changes everything" has become our school's theme and way of life this school year.

Target Audience: Elementary

Bonus 4 – Be a Neighbor- Oklahoma's Community Connection Initiative

Coady Andrews, Oklahoma Department of Human Services, Director of Be A Neighbor

Meeting Room 1

In a world growing more connected, we are faced with Oklahomans experiencing poverty, youth dropping out of high school, young adults aging out of foster care and individuals re-entering society after prison. Delivering lasting change for Oklahoma will take community leaders and influencers like you uniting resources and working together to be a neighbor to those in need. In this session you will learn how you can support this effort and to bring connection to your students and community.

Target Audience: All

Bonus 5 – The Lions Quest Program

Anthony Dowell – Prodigy

Meeting Room 2

This is an overview examining the benefits of using the Lions Quest research-based curriculum, which has a top 5 CASEL select rating and has proved effective in preventing bullying, suicide and substance abuse while increasing academic testing scores in kindergarten through eighth grade. The United Nations recently proclaimed it the most effective curriculum of its kind in the world today.

Target Audience: Elementary-Middle School

Sessions C 1-9 1:40-2:30

C1 – Behavioral Threat Assessment:

Prevention vs. Prediction

Cindy Swearingen – Oklahoma State Department of Education, Assistant Executive Director of School Safety and Security

Ballroom 1

A doctor cannot tell a patient when he or she will have a heart attack. A medical professional looks at risk factors and warning signs to develop a treatment plan. The same is true for behavioral threat assessment. To prevent acts of targeted violence, student threat assessment teams look at risk factors and warning signs to develop mitigation plans. Oklahoma's behavioral threat assessment process is a multi-assessment system. The team-based investigation process is modeled after the Salem-Keizer Threat Assessment System.

Target Audience: All

C2 – Oklahoma Marijuana Law and Current Oklahoma Drug Threats

Craig Williams – Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, Chief

Ballroom 2

This presentation is designed to educate the audience on trends in types of drugs abused in Oklahoma, both licit and illicit, and the new changes in law regarding the use of marijuana.

We will look at the types, origins and effects of the most predominantly abused drugs in Oklahoma.

Target Audience: All

C3 – ICAP and Work-Based Learning:

What's the Connection?

Chelsea Hunt – Oklahoma State Department of Education, Executive Director for Work-Based

Ballroom 3AB

Come learn how individual career academic planning connects to work-based learning. This interactive session will include an overview on the components of WBL and what counts toward the postsecondary opportunities indicator; sample WBL activities, best practices for WBL, from rural to urban areas; and resources to help you create industry and community partnerships in your area.

C4 – Oklahoma's Promise – Closing out the Year

Carol Alexander – Oklahoma State Regents For Higher Education, Director of Scholarships/Grants

Ballroom 3C

The end of the school year is in sight. What do you do with your OKPromise students now? We will discuss how to process the end-of-year paperwork for OKPromise seniors and the last minute rush to complete applications before the deadline.

Target Audience: High School

C5 – Sanford Harmony

Janessa Bointy – Sunset Elementary, School Counselor

Meeting Room 1

Sanford Harmony is a no-cost social emotional learning program for prekindergarten through sixth grade students designed to foster communication, connection and community both in and outside the classroom and develop boys and girls into compassionate and caring adults.

Sean Buchanan – Geary Schools, Elementary Principal

Meeting Room 3B

This session is designed to give solutions to educators as they try to reach students and parents who may be apathetic in their outlook toward education, struggle with discipline issues or lack motivation. It features researched-based strategies that have been proven to improve student behavior and results on standardized assessments.

Target Audience: Elementary

C9 – Attitude: Choose it or Lose It

Jared Williams – Moore Norman Technology Center, Career Connection Specialist

Meeting Room 3C

Attitude is normally the only difference between success and failure, and it's something our students have plenty of, both good and bad. If you need a new way to teach positive attitudes, then come see how I do it. I'm going to talk to you just like I talk to my students about attitude. In the end you'll hopefully have some new ideas about how to teach attitude and a new perspective on your own attitude.

Target Audience: All

SESSIONS D 1-9 2:40-3:30

D1 – Work-Based Learning Perspectives from Oklahoma Industry Leaders

Panel Discussion

Ballroom 1

This panel is made up of Oklahoma industry leaders who asked for the opportunity to talk with school counselors about jobs, hiring, pipelines and work-based learning from their perspectives. Be ready for a dialogue about mentoring, job shadowing, career fairs and other ways for schools and employers to help one another.

Target Audience: High School

D2 – An Introduction to School-Based Crisis Response: Suicide and Self-Harm

Dr. Erika Olinger and Trisha Goga – Oklahoma State Department of Education, Crisis Team/School Psych

Ballroom 2

The National Association of School Psychologists PREPaRE crisis response and intervention curriculum was designed by and for school mental health professionals. The curriculum provides a framework for crisis response, including evidence-based interventions, resources and supports for school mental health professionals charged with responding to student suicide and self-harm. Best practice approaches for prevention, intervention and postvention will be introduced. The presentation will also include information on caring for the caregiver as an integral part of school-based mental health response.

Target Audience: Middle-High School

D3 – The Trauma is Real: A Prison Perspective

Dr. Jeana Ely – Oklahoma Department of Corrections, Superintendent of Schools

Ballroom 3AB

This session will discuss the incarceration piece of ACEs, from the incarcerated parent perspective as well as from the perspective of the adult ACE victim looking back. I will give you stories that will break your heart. I will give you brilliant stories of overcoming incredible odds. But I hope I give you something that you will remember -- that will keep you involved even when you want to quit -- because these students can be so difficult.

Target Audience: All

D4 – Safety through Policies and Procedures

Julie Geddes – Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse

Sharon Heatly – Norman Public Schools, Director of Counseling and Student Advocacy

Meeting Room 3C

Policies and procedures provide safety for the school, students and families. Through planning and vetting of resources, the responses to interventions and suicides provide a safety net for all. This workshop will cover policy and procedure templates for participants' use.

Target Audience: Elementary-High School
