To Whom It May Concern:

Victory Life Academy was established in 1987, and was accredited in 2002 to the present continually. Due to the changing dynamics for private education, clarity was needed with naming mechanics going forward. Victory Life Academy is changing its name to Legacy Christian School. Same school, new name for marketing purposes.

The decision to change the school name has been made after extensive deliberation and careful consideration of various factors. We firmly believe that this will clarify and more descriptively state who we are, and what we offer to parents in our community.

We look forward to building a Legacy, and please reach out if you have any questions!

Sincerely,

Dr. Sarah Morrison

VLA offers students with disabilities specific services based on the needs of the students. VLA meets with the parents, looks over the incoming IEP or ISP, and decides how best to serve the student to the school's capability. Parents are always in the loop, and teachers are required to accommodate as needed for the students. Meetings are held for the students and parents, and updates are given accordingly.

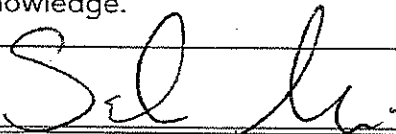

VLA has small class sizes, a 12:1 teacher ratio, and a flexible schedule based on the needs of the students.

VLA strives to meet the needs of students on an individual level at all possible to ensure their future success in their coursework. The teachers at VLA meet or exceed state standard requirements per accreditation.

Please list below any additional information you would like the State Board of Education to consider for adding your school to the list of approved private schools for the Lindsey Nicole Henry Scholarship.

VLA is a small school that has been in operation since 1987. It has been accredited for over 20 years, and maintains academic standards that meet or exceed the surrounding school districts. VLA wants to serve students as best they can for their future success.

The information I have provided the State Board of Education is correct and complete to the best of my knowledge.
