Marzano Non-Classroom Instructional Support Personnel Evaluation Model Learning Map

MARZANO Evaluation Center

to modify its professional development products. This tool or any representation thereof is for the strict and only use of Marzano Evaluation Center.

Domain 1: Instructional Support Strategies and Behaviors

Establishing and Communicating Goals

1. Providing Clear Goals and Scales (Rubrics)

The instructional support member provides clearly stated goals based on area of responsibility that align with school and/or district goals and has a scale that describes levels of performance.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member establishes a defined work plan or set of goals aligned with school and district goals
- □ Instructional support member communicates work plan or goals and scale to appropriate people
- □ Instructional support member makes references to their goals throughout the year
- □ Instructional support member can explain how goals support and align with school and/or district goals.
- □ Instructional support member can explain the meaning of the levels of performance articulated in the scale
- □ Instructional support member can explain how their activities relate to the goal

Sample Participant Evidence

- □ When asked, participants, colleagues, and/or administrators can explain how the instructional support member goals relate to and/or support the school or district goals
- □ When asked, participants, colleagues, and/or administrators can explain how the instructional support member's activities relate to the school and/or district goals

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called	Uses strategy	Provides clearly	Provides clearly	Adapts and creates for but not	incorrectly or with	stated goals	stated goals	new strategies for exhibited.	parts missing.	accompanied by a	accompanied by a	unique needs and scale that describes	scale that describes	situations.
		levels of	levels of performance.	performance and monitors understanding of goal and levels of performance.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

2.	Tracking Progress
The	instructional support member facilitates tracking of progress toward goals.
San	nple Instructional Support Member Evidence Instructional support member monitors progress toward their goals throughout the school year using a scale Instructional support member is responsive to participants, colleagues and administrators regarding feedback about their progress Instructional support member actively consults with colleagues and administrators to find an optimal approach to ensure progress Instructional support member consults with colleagues and administrators to ensure he/she is making progress towards the goal(s)
	Instructional support member keeps updated records (i.e. data bases, data notebook, etc.) that validate tracking progress towards their goals
San	nple Participant Evidence
	When asked, participants, colleagues, and administrators can describe how the instructional support member is progressing towards their goal t icipant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 cicipants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
	ool is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support nber's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Facilitates tracking of progress toward goals.	Facilitates tracking of progress and monitors the extent to which progress is being made at each level of performance.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

3. Celebrating Success

The instructional support member celebrates personal, participant, school and/or district success relative to progress towards their goals.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member acknowledges and celebrates personal progress towards their goals
- □ Instructional support member uses a variety of methods to celebrate school and/or district success
- □ Instructional support member acknowledges and celebrates individual and group successes
- □ The instructional support member shows pride in their work and reports they want to continue to make progress toward meeting their goals

Sample Participant Evidence

□ Participants and/ or colleagues show signs of pride regarding recognition of their accomplishments by the instructional support member

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called	Uses strategy	Celebrates personal,	Provides recognition	Adapts and creates for but not	incorrectly or with	school and/or	of success relative	new strategies for exhibited.	parts missing.	district successes	to progress towards	unique needs and relative to progress	their goals and/or	situations.
		towards their goals.	monitors the extent to which they and others are motivated to enhance their status.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

4. Identifying Critical Information
The instructional support member identifies critical information in a lesson or activity to which participants should pay particular attention.
Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence
□ Instructional support member begins the lesson or activity by explaining why upcoming content is important □ Instructional support member identifies content or information critical to their area of responsibility □ Instructional support member cues the importance of upcoming information in some indirect fashion:
Tone of voice
Body position
Level of excitement Marker technique
Sample Participant Evidence
When asked, participants can describe the level of importance of the information addressed in the lesson or activity □ When asked, participants can explain why it is important to pay attention to the content Participants visibly pay attention to the critical information
Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Signals to participants which information is critical versus non- critical.	Signals to participants which information is critical versus non- critical and monitors the extent to which participants are attending to critical information.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

5. Organizing Participants to Interact with New Knowledge

The instructional support member organizes participants into small groups to facilitate the processing of information.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member establishes routines for participant grouping and interaction within groups
- □ Instructional support member establishes roles and procedures for group activities:
 - Respect opinion of others
 - Add their perspective to discussions
 - Ask and answer questions

Sample Participant Evidence

- □ Participants move to groups in an orderly fashion and know their role in the group
- □ Participants appear to understand expectations about appropriate behavior in groups:
 - Respect opinion of others
 - Add their perspective to discussions
 - Ask and answer questions

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Organizes participants into small groups to facilitate the processing of information.	Organizes participants into small groups to facilitate the processing of information and monitors group processing.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

6. Previewing New Content
The instructional support member engages participants in activities that help link what they already know to the new content/activity about to be addressed and facilitates these linkages.
Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence
Instructional support member uses preview question before reading Instructional support member uses K-W-L strategy or variation of it \square Instructional support member asks or reminds participants what they already know about the topic Instructional support member provides an advanced organizer:
Outline
Graphic organizer
Instructional support member has participants brainstorm Instructional support member uses an anticipation guide Instructional support member uses a motivational hook/launching activity:
Anecdotes
Short selection from video
Sample Participant Evidence
When asked, participants can explain linkages with prior knowledge
When asked, participants make predictions about upcoming content
When asked, participants can provide a purpose for what they are about to learn Participants actively engage in previewing activities
Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Scale

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called	Uses strategy	Engages	Engages	Adapts and creates for but not	incorrectly or with	participants in	participants in	new strategies for exhibited.	parts missing.	learning activities	learning activities	unique needs and that require them to preview and link new knowledge to what has been addressed.	that require them to preview and link new knowledge to what has been addressed and monitors the extent to which participants are making linkages.	situations.

©2013 Robert J. Marzano. May only be digitized in IE Observation learning management systems. https://marzanoevaluationcenter.com

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

7.	Elaborating on New Information
	The instructional support member asks questions or engages participants in activities that require elaborative inferences that go beyond what was explicitly taught.
Sar	nple Instructional Support Member Evidence
	Instructional support member asks explicit questions that require participants to make elaborative inferences about the content or activity Instructional support member asks participants to explain and defend their inferences Instructional support member presents situations or problems that require inferences
Sar	nple Participant Evidence
	When asked, participants volunteer answers to inferential questions
	When asked, participants provide explanations and "proofs" for inferences ticipant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 ticipants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
	ool is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's a of responsibility.
0-

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called	Uses strategy	Engages participants	Engages participants	Adapts and creates for but not	incorrectly or with	in answering	in answering	new strategies for exhibited.	parts missing.	inferential	inferential questions	unique needs and questions.	and monitors the	situations.
			extent to which participants elaborate on what was explicitly taught.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

8 Pecording and Pepresenting Knowledge

The instructional support member engages participants in activities that help record their understanding of new content in linguistic ways and/or represent the content in nonlinguistic ways.
Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence □ Instructional support member asks participants to summarize the information he/she has learned Instructional support member asks participants to generate notes that identify critical information in the content □ Instructional support member asks participants to create nonlinguistic representations for new content:
Graphic organizers
Pictures
Pictographs
Flow charts
Instructional support member asks participants to create mnemonics that organize the content
Sample Participant Evidence
Participants' summaries and notes include critical content Participants' nonlinguistic representations include critical content
When asked, participants can explain the main points of the lesson or activity
Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called	Uses strategy	Engages	Engages	Adapts and creates
for but not	incorrectly or with	participants in	participants in	new strategies for exhibited.	parts missing.	activities that help	activities that help	unique needs and them record their understanding of new content in linguistic and/or nonlinguistic ways.	them record their understanding of new content in linguistic and/or nonlinguistic ways and monitors the extent to which this enhances participants' understanding.	situations.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

9.	Reflecting on Learning
The	e instructional support member engages participants in activities that help them reflect on their learning.
Sar	nple Instructional Support Member Evidence
	Instructional support member asks participants to state or record what he/she is clear about and what he/she is confused about Instructional support member asks participants to state or record how hard he/she tried Instructional support member asks participants to state or record what he/she might have done to enhance their learning
Sar	nple Participant Evidence
	When asked, participants can explain what he/she is clear about and what he/she is confused about When asked, participants can describe how hard he/she tried When asked, participants can explain what he/she could have done to enhance their learning r ticipant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 ticipants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
	bool is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's a of responsibility.

Scale
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Engages participants in reflecting on their own learning.	Engages participants in reflecting on their own learning and monitors the extent to which participants self- assess their understanding and effort.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

10. Providing Opportunities for Participants to Talk about Themselves

The instructional support member provides participants with opportunities to relate what is being addressed in a lesson or activity to their personal interests.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member is aware of participant's interests and makes connections between these interests and class content and educational goals
- □ Instructional support member structures activities and discussions that ask participants to make connections between schooling and their personal interests

Sample Participant Evidence

- □ When participants are explaining how content relates to their personal interests, the instructional support member appears encouraging and interested
- □ When asked, participants can make linkages between the lesson or activity and their personal interests
- Participants engage in activities that facilitate making connections between their personal interests and the lesson or activity

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Provides participants with opportunities to relate what is being addressed in classes	Provides participants with opportunities to relate what is being addressed in classes	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.
		to their personal interests.	to their personal interests and monitors the extent to which these activities enhance participant engagement.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

11	. Demonstrating "Withitness" e instructional support member uses behaviors associated with "withitness" to maintain and support nerence to rules, policies, and procedures.
Sar	Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence
	Instructional support member is accessible to parents and the school community Instructional support member establishes healthy professional relationships with participants, colleagues, administrators, and parents Instructional support member recognizes potential sources of disruption to classrooms and the entire school and deals with them immediately Instructional support member proactively addresses inflammatory situations
Sar	nple Participant Evidence
	Participants recognize that the instructional support member is aware of their behavior as well as the climate of the school When asked, participants, parents, or colleagues describe the instructional support member as "aware of what is going on" or participants describe the instructional support member as one who "has eyes on the back of their head" ticipant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 ticipants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
	ool is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support mber's area of responsibility.
Sc	ale

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Uses behaviors associated with "withitness".	Uses behaviors associated with "withitness" and monitors the effect on behavior and school climate.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

12. Acknowledging Adherence to Rules and Procedures
The instructional support member consistently and fairly acknowledges adherence to rules and procedures.
Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence
 Instructional support member provides nonverbal signals that a rule or procedure has been followed: Smile Nod of head High Five Instructional support member gives verbal cues that a rule or procedure has been followed: Thanks participants for following a rule or procedure Describes participant behaviors that adhere to rules or procedures Instructional support member uses tangible recognition when a rule or procedure has been followed: Certificate of merit Token economies
Sample Participant Evidence
Participants or staff members appear appreciative of the instructional support member acknowledging the positive behavior □ When asked, participants describe instructional support member as appreciative of their good behavior
When asked, participants report the instructional support member fairly and consistently acknowledges adherence to rules and procedures
Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called	Uses strategy	Acknowledges	Acknowledges	Adapts and creates for but not	incorrectly or with	adherence to rules	adherence to rules	new strategies for exhibited.	parts missing.	and procedures	and procedures	unique needs and consistently and	consistently and	situations.
		fairly.	fairly and monitors the extent to which these actions affect behavior.

13. Understanding Participants' Interests and Background

The instructional support member uses participants' interests and background to produce a climate of acceptance and community.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member has side discussions with participants and colleagues about events in their life
- □ Instructional support member has discussions with participants and colleagues about topics in which he/she is interested
- □ Instructional support member builds participants' interests into their interactions

Sample Participant Evidence

- □ When asked, participants and colleagues describe the instructional support member as someone who knows him/her and/or is interested in him/her
- □ When asked, participants and colleagues say they feel accepted by the instructional support member

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Uses participants' interests and background during interactions with participants.	Uses participants' interests and background during interactions and monitors the sense of acceptance and community.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

14. Using Verbal and Nonverbal Behaviors that Indicate Affection for Participants

When appropriate, the instructional support member uses verbal and nonverbal behavior that indicates caring for participants or colleagues.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member compliments participants and colleagues regarding academic and personal accomplishments
- □ Instructional support member engages in informal conversations with participants or colleagues that are not related to academics
- □ Instructional support member uses humor with participants and colleagues when appropriate
- □ Instructional support member smiles, nods, (etc.) at participants and colleagues when appropriate

Sample Participant Evidence

- □ When asked, participants and/or colleagues describe the instructional support member as someone who cares for him/her
- □ Participants respond to instructional support member's verbal and non-verbal interactions

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Uses verbal and nonverbal behaviors that indicate affection for participants or colleagues.	Uses verbal and nonverbal behaviors that indicate affection for participants or colleagues and monitors the quality of relationships during all interactions.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

15	. Displaying Objectivity and Control
The	e instructional support member behaves in an objective and controlled manner.
Sar	nple Instructional Support Member Evidence
	Instructional support member does not exhibit extremes in positive or negative emotions Instructional support member addresses inflammatory issues and events in a calm and controlled manner Instructional support member interacts with all participants and colleagues in the same calm and controlled fashion Instructional support member does not demonstrate personal offense at student misbehavior
Sar	nple Participant Evidence
	Participants and colleagues report they are settled by the instructional support member's calm demeanor
	When asked, participants and colleagues describe the instructional support member as in control of himself/herself in all situations
	When asked, participants and colleagues say that the instructional support member does not hold grudges or take things personally ticipant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 dents, adult students, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.
	ool is used generically to represent students, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's a of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Behaves in an objective and controlled manner.	Behaves in an objective and controlled manner and monitors the effect of all	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.
			interactions with participants and colleagues.

16. Demonstrating Value and Respect for Low Expectancy Participants

The instructional support member exhibits behaviors that demonstrate value and respect for low expectancy participants.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ When asked, the instructional support member can identify the participants for whom there have been low expectations
- □ Instructional support member provides low expectancy participants with nonverbal indications that he/she is valued and respected:
 - Makes eye contact
 - Smiles
 - Makes appropriate physical contact
- □ Instructional support member provides low expectancy participants with verbal indications that he/she is valued and respected:
 - Playful dialogue
 - Addressing participants in a manner they view as respectful
- □ Instructional support member does not allow negative comments about low expectancy participants
- □ Instructional support member sets high expectations for all participants

Sample Participant Evidence

□ When asked, participants and/or colleagues say that the instructional support member cares for all participants

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 students, adult students, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent students, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
Strategy was called for but not exhibited.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Exhibits behaviors that demonstrate value and respect for low expectancy participants.	Exhibits behaviors that demonstrate value and respect for low expectancy participants and monitors the impact on low expectancy participants.	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique needs and situations.

Domain 2: Planning and Preparing

Planning and Preparing for Implementation of Goals and Scaffolding of Content or Activities

17. Effective Goal Setting and Scaffolding of Content or Activities

The instructional support member plans the organization of content and activities in such a way that each piece of content or activity builds on previous goals, content, or activities.

Sample Planning Evidence

- □ Instructional support member has evidence of a work plan to support his or her goals and the goals of the school and/or district
- □ The plan for presentation of content or activities is logical and progresses from simple to complex
- □ The plan anticipates potential confusions or misunderstandings that participants or schools may experience

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member can describe the rationale for how goals are organized within a plan-of-work
- □ Instructional support member can describe the rationale for the sequence of activities or lessons within a plan-of-work
- □ Instructional support member can describe possible confusions that may impact goals, content or activities

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional support member makes no attempt to perform this activity.	The instructional support member attempts to perform this activity but does not actually complete or follow through with these attempts.	The instructional support member plans the organization of content but the relationship between the goals, content and activities is not clear.	Within the lesson plan, the organization of content and activities is done in such a way that each piece of content or activity builds on previous goals, content, or activities.	The instructional support member is a recognized leader in helping others with this activity.

18. Attention to Established Standards or Procedures

The instructional support member develops plans and/or activities that are aligned with established school and/or district standards or procedures.

Sample Planning Evidence

- □ Plans for instructional activities include important standards identified by the district
- □ Plans are developed with attention to established district standards and procedures

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member can explain how their plan of work supports the established school and/or district standards
- □ Instructional support member can describe the sequence of the content or activities to be taught as identified by the school and/or district

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to perform	develops plans	develops plans	a recognized leader to perform this	this activity but	and/or activities,	and/or activities	in helping others activity.	does not actually	but all do not align	that are aligned	with this activity.
	complete or follow	with established	with established through with these	school and/or	school and/or attempts.	district standards or	district standards or procedures.	procedures.

Planning and Preparing for Use of Resources and Technology

19. Use of Available Traditional Resources

The instructional support member identifies the available traditional resources (materials and human) for use in their plan of work and/or instructional activities.

Sample Planning Evidence

- □ The plan outlines resources within the immediate work environment or school that will be used enhance participants' understanding of the content
- □ The plan outlines resources within the community that will be used to enhance participants' understanding of the content

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member can describe how the resources within the immediate work environment and/or the school will be used to enhance participant's' understanding of the content
- □ Instructional support member can describe how resources within the community will be used to enhance participants' understanding of the content

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to perform	identifies the	identifies the	a recognized leader to perform this	this activity but	available traditional	available traditional	in helping others activity.	does not actually	resources that can	resources that can	with this activity.
	complete or follow	enhance participant	enhance participant through with these	understanding but	understanding and attempts.	does not identify	the manner in the manner in	which they will be
		which they will be	used.
		used.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

20. Use of Available Technology

The instructional support member identifies the use of available technology that can enhance their plan of work and/or participants' understanding of content in an instructional activity.

Sample Planning Evidence

□ The plan identifies available technology that will be used:

- Interactive whiteboards
- Response systems
- Digital templates
- Social networking sites
- Blogs
- Discussion Boards

□ The plan identifies how the technology will be used to enhance participant learning

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member can explain how the technology will be used to reach their goals
- □ Instructional support member can articulate how the technology will be used to enhance participant learning

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

eedie
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is
makes no attempt	attempts to perform	identifies the	identifies the	a recognized leader to perform this	this activity but	available	available	in helping others activity.	does not actually	technologies that	technologies that	with this activity.
	complete or follow	can enhance their	can enhance their through with these	plan of work and/or	plan of work or attempts.	participant	participant understanding but	understanding and does not identify	the manner in
		the manner in	which they will be
		which they will be	used.
		used.

Marzano Instructional Support Member Evaluation Form (Licensed Non-Classroom Personnel)

Planning and Preparing for the Needs of English Language Learners

21. Needs of English Language Learners

The instructional support member provides support for the needs of English Language Learners (ELL) by identifying appropriate adaptations or accommodations that must be made.

Sample Planning Evidence

- □ The plan identifies the accommodations or adaptations that must be made for individual ELL participants or groups within an instructional activity, or within their area of responsibility
- □ The plan identifies the adaptations that must be made for individual ELL participants or groups within their area of responsibility

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member can describe the accommodations that must be made for individual ELL participants or groups within an instructional activity
- □ Instructional support member can describe the adaptations that must be made for individual ELL participants or groups within an instructional activity
- □ Instructional support member can identify support provided in his or her plan of work for ELL participants or the school

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Scale
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to perform	provides support for	provides support for	a recognized leader to perform this	this activity but	the needs of English	the needs of English	in helping others activity.	does not actually	Language Learners	Language Learners	with this activity.
	complete or follow	by identifying	by identifying through with these	appropriate	appropriate attempts.	adaptations or	adaptations or accommodations	accommodations but does not	and articulates the articulate the	adaptations or adaptations or	accommodations accommodations	that will be made to that will be made to	meet these needs.
		meet these needs.

Scale

©2013 Robert J. Marzano. May only be digitized in IE Observation learning management systems. https://marzanoevaluationcenter.com

Planning and Preparing for Needs of Participants Receiving Special Education

22. Needs of Participants Receiving Special Education

The instructional support member identifies the needs of participants receiving special education services by providing accommodations and modifications that must be made for participants receiving special education services.

Sample Planning Evidence

- □ The plan of work describes accommodations and modifications that must be made for individual participants receiving special education according to the Individualized Education Program (IEP)
- □ The plan of work describes the support the instructional support member will provide for participants receiving special education services

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member can describe the specific accommodations that must be made for individual participants receiving special education services according to their IEP for an instructional activity
- □ Instructional support member can describe the specific support(s) that will be provided for participants receiving special education services

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to perform	identifies the needs	identifies the needs	a recognized leader to perform this	this activity but	of participants	of participants	in helping others activity.	does not actually	receiving special	receiving special	with this activity.
	complete or follow	education but does	education and the through with these	not articulate the	accommodations attempts.	accommodations or	and modifications modifications that	that will be made to will be made to	meet these needs.
		meet these needs.

Planning and Preparing for Needs of Participants Who Lack Support for Schooling

23. Needs of Participants Who Lack Support for Schooling

The instructional support member identifies the needs of participants who come from home environments that offer little support for schooling.

Sample Planning Evidence

- □ The plan provides for the needs of participants who come from home environments that offer little support for schooling
- □ When engaging participants, the instructional support member takes into consideration the participants' family resources
- □ When communicating with the home, the instructional support member takes into consideration family and language resources
- □ The plan of work describes how the instructional support member provides support for participants who lack support for schooling

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member can articulate how the needs of participants who come from home environments that offer little support for schooling will be addressed
- □ Instructional support member can articulate the ways in which the participants' family resources will be addressed when working with participants
- □ Instructional support member can articulate the ways in which communication with the home will take into consideration family and language resources
- □ Instructional support member can explain how he or she will provide support for participants who lack support for schooling

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Scale

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional support member makes no attempt to perform this activity.	The instructional support member attempts to perform this activity but does not actually complete or follow through with these attempts.	The instructional support member identifies the needs of participants who lack support for schooling but does not articulate how the adaptations will be made to meet these needs.	The instructional support member identifies the needs of participants who lack support for schooling and the adaptations that will be made to meet these needs.	The instructional support member is a recognized leader in helping others with this activity.

©2013 Robert J. Marzano. May only be digitized in IE Observation learning management systems. https://marzanoevaluationcenter.com

Domain 3: Reflecting on Teaching and Supporting

Evaluating Personal Performance

24. Identifying Areas of Pedagogical Strength and Weakness

The instructional support member identifies specific strategies and behaviors on which to improve.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member identifies specific areas of strengths and weaknesses
- □ Instructional support member keeps track of specifically identified focus areas for improvement
- □ Instructional support member identifies and keeps track of specific areas identified based on individual interest
- □ Instructional support member can describe how specific areas for improvement are identified

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to perform	identifies specific	identifies specific	a recognized leader to perform this	this activity but	strategies and	strategies and	in helping others activity.	does not actually	behaviors on which	behaviors on which	with this activity.
	complete or follow	to improve but does	to improve their through with these	not select the	pedagogy.
	attempts.	strategies and behaviors that are most useful for his or her pedagogical development.

25. Evaluating the Effectiveness of Specific Pedagogical Strategies and Behaviors

The instructional support member determines the effectiveness of specific techniques and strategies relating to their plan of work.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member gathers and keeps evidence of the effects of specific strategies and behaviors in his or her area of responsibility
- □ Instructional support member provides a written analysis of specific causes of success or difficulty
- □ Instructional support member can explain the differential effects of specific strategies and behaviors that yield results

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Ocale
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to	determines the	determines the	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	effectiveness of	effectiveness of	in helping others activity.	but does not	specific strategies	specific strategies	with this activity.
	actually complete	and behaviors	and behaviors or follow through	regarding their plan	regarding their plan with these	of work but does	of work and attempts.	not accurately	identifies the identify the reasons	reasons for their for their	effectiveness.
		effectiveness.

Developing and Implementing a Professional Growth Plan

26. Developing a Written Growth and Development Plan

The instructional support member develops a written professional growth and development plan with specific and measurable goals, action steps, manageable timelines, and appropriate resources.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member constructs a growth plan that outlines measurable goals, action steps, manageable timelines, and appropriate resources
- □ Instructional support member can describe the professional growth plan using specific and measurable goals, action steps, manageable timelines, and appropriate resources

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Ocule
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to	develops a written	develops a written	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	professional growth	professional growth	in helping others activity.	but does not	and development	and development	with this activity.
	actually complete	plan but does not	plan with clear and or follow through	articulate clear and	measurable goals, with these	measurable goals,	action steps, attempts.	action steps,	timelines, and timelines, and	resources.
		appropriate resources.

27. Monitoring Progress Relative to the Professional Growth and Development Plan

The instructional support member charts his or her progress on the professional growth and development plan using established action plans, milestones, and timelines.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member constructs a plan that outlines a method for charting progress toward established goals supported by evidence (e.g., achievement data, artifacts, interviews or surveys from peers, participants, and observer feedback)
- □ Instructional support member can describe progress toward meeting the goals outlined in the plan supported by evidence

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Scale
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to	charts his or her	charts his or her	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	progress on the	progress on the	in helping others activity.	but does not	professional growth	professional growth	with this activity.
	actually complete	and development	and development or follow through	plan using	plan using with these	established action	established action attempts.	plans, milestones	plans, milestones and timelines but	and timelines and does not make	makes modifications or	modifications or adaptations as	adaptations as needed.	needed to meet his or her goals.

Domain 4: Collegiality and Professionalism

Promoting a Positive Environment

28. Promoting Positive Interactions with Colleagues

The instructional support member interacts with colleagues in a positive manner to promote and support learning.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member works cooperatively with appropriate colleagues to address issues that impact learning
- □ Instructional support member establishes working relationships that demonstrate integrity, confidentiality, respect, flexibility, fairness, and trust
- □ Instructional support member accesses available expertise and resources to support participants' learning needs
- □ Instructional support member can describe situations in which he/she interacts positively with colleagues to promote and support learning
- □ Instructional support member can describe situations in which he/she helped extinguish negative conversations about other colleagues

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

ooulo
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to	interacts with	interacts with	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	colleagues in a	colleagues in a	in helping others activity.	but does not	positive manner to	positive manner to	with this activity.
	actually complete	promote and	promote and or follow through	support learning	support learning with these	but does not help	and helps to attempts.	extinguish negative	extinguish negative conversations about	conversations about other colleagues or	other colleagues or the school.	the school.

29. Promoting Positive Interactions with Participants, Parents and the Community

The instructional support member interacts with participants, parents and the community in a positive manner to foster learning and promote positive home/school relationships.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member fosters collaborative partnerships with parents to enhance participant success in a manner that demonstrates integrity, confidentiality, respect, flexibility, fairness, and trust
- □ Instructional support member ensures consistent and timely communication with parents regarding participant expectations, progress, and/or concerns
- □ Instructional support member encourages parent involvement in classroom and school activities
- □ Instructional support member demonstrates awareness and sensitivity to social, cultural, and language backgrounds of families
- □ Instructional support member uses multiple means and modalities to communicate with families
- □ Instructional support member responds to requests for support, and/or assistance promptly
- □ Instructional support member respects and maintains confidentiality of participant/family information
- □ Instructional support member can describe instances when he/she interacted positively with participants and parents and/or the community
- □ When asked, the instructional support member can describe situations in which he/she helped extinguish negative conversations about participants, parents, and/or the community

Sample Participant Evidence

□ When asked, participants, parents, and/or community members can describe how the instructional support member interacted positively with them

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Scale

Scale
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is
makes no attempt	attempts to	interacts with	interacts with	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	participants,	participants,	in helping others activity.	but does not	parents and	parents and	with this activity. activity.	actually complete	community in a	community in a or follow through	positive manner to	positive manner to with these	foster learning and	foster learning and attempts.	promote positive	promote positive home/school	home/school /community	/community relationships but	relationships and does not help	helps extinguish extinguish negative	negative conversations.	conversations.

©2013 Robert J. Marzano. May only be digitized in IE Observation learning management systems. https://marzanoevaluationcenter.com

Promoting Exchange of Ideas and Strategies

30. Seeking Mentorship for Areas of Need or Interest

The instructional support member seeks help and input from colleagues regarding specific educational strategies and behaviors.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member keeps track of specific situations during which he/she has sought mentorship from others
- □ Instructional support member actively seeks help and input as a member of a Professional Learning Community
- □ Instructional support member actively seeks help and input from appropriate school members to address issues that impact instruction and school or district goals
- □ Instructional support member can describe how he/she seeks input from colleagues regarding issues that impact instruction and school or district goals

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to	seeks help and	seeks help and	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	mentorship from	mentorship from	in helping others activity.	but does not	colleagues	colleagues	with this activity.
	actually complete	regarding specific	regarding specific or follow through	educational	educational with these	strategies and	strategies and attempts.	behaviors but not at	behaviors to a specific enough	enhance their
		level to enhance	pedagogical skills.
		their pedagogical
		skill.

31. Mentoring Other Colleagues and Sharing Ideas and Strategies

The instructional support member provides other colleagues with help and input regarding specific educational strategies and behaviors relating to their area of responsibility.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member keeps tracks of specific situations during which he/she mentored other instructional support members
- □ Instructional support member contributes and shares expertise and new ideas with colleagues to enhance learning in formal and informal ways
- □ Instructional support member serves as an appropriate role model (mentor, coach, presenter, researcher) regarding specific educational strategies and behaviors
- □ Instructional support member can describe specific situations in which he/she has mentored colleagues

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member	support member	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to	provides other	provides other	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	colleagues with	colleagues with	in helping others activity.	but does not	help and input	help and input	with this activity.
	actually complete	regarding	regarding
	or follow through	educational	educational
	with these	strategies and	strategies and
	attempts.	behaviors but not at	behaviors to
		a specific enough	enhance their
		level to enhance	pedagogical skills.
		their pedagogical
		skill.

Promoting District and School Development

32. Adhering to School and District Rules and Procedures The instructional support member is aware of and adheres to school and district rules and procedures. Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence Instructional support member performs assigned duties Instructional support member follows policies, regulations, and procedures Instructional support member maintains accurate records (participant progress, completion of assignments, non-instructional records) Instructional support member fulfills responsibilities in a timely manner Instructional support member demonstrates personal integrity Instructional support member keeps track of specific situations in which he/she adheres to rules and procedures Instructional support member is knowledgeable and adheres to state code of ethics, professional standards and code of conduct applicable to the position

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Oculo
Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional support member	support member	support member is	support member is	support member is makes no attempt	attempts to	aware of school and	aware of school and	a recognized leader to perform this	perform this activity	district rules and	district rules and	in helping others activity.	but does not	procedures but	procedures and	with this activity.
	actually complete	does not adhere to	adheres to them.
	or follow through	all of these rules with these	and procedures.
	attempts.

33. Participating in School and District Initiatives

The instructional support member is aware of school and district initiatives and participates in them in accordance with his or her talents and availability.

Sample Instructional Support Member Evidence

- □ Instructional support member participates in school activities and events as appropriate to support participants and the school community
- □ Instructional support member serves on school and district committees
- □ Instructional support member participates in staff development opportunities
- □ Instructional support member works to achieve school and district improvement goals
- □ Instructional support member keeps tracks of specific situations in which he/she has participated in school and/or district initiatives
- □ Instructional support member can describe or show evidence of their participation in school and/or district initiatives

Participant is a generic term to include anyone the Instructional Support Member is supporting, to include: PreK-12 participants, adult participants, faculty, staff, colleagues, parents, or community members.

School is used generically to represent participants, teachers, staff or other colleagues in the instructional support member's area of responsibility.

Not Using	Beginning	Developing	Applying	Innovating
The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional	The instructional
support member	support member	support member is	support member is	support member is
makes no attempt	attempts to	aware of school and	aware of school and	a recognized leader
to perform this	perform this activity	district initiatives	district initiatives	in helping others activity.	but does not	but does not	and participates in	with this activity.
	actually complete	participate in them	them in accordance or follow through	in accordance with	with their talents with these	their talents and	and availability.
	attempts.	availability.		