OSDE Announces Partnership with PragerU Kids

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma – The Oklahoma State Department of Education launched an ongoing partnership with PragerU Kids. PragerU kids provides educational, entertaining, pro-American kids content.

“I am thrilled to announce this partnership with PragerU,” said State Superintendent Ryan Walters. “This expansion of our available resources will help ensure high quality materials rich in American history and values will be available to our teachers and students. We will work together to find ways for PragerU to create content that will enrich the education of Oklahoma students.”

Additional information and links to content may be found on the OSDE website:
