

RULE IMPACT STATEMENT

210:1-5-6. Suspension and/or revocation of certificates [AMENDED]

a. What is the purpose of the proposed rule change?

The purpose of this rule is to require respondents who intend to contest an application to revoke a certificate to provide notification of such intent to the Secretary of the Board of Education within a timely period.

b. What classes of persons will be affected by the proposed rule change and what classes of persons will bear the costs of the proposed rule change?

The rule change will impose minor informational costs on respondents in administrative proceedings who have previously disregarded applications until a hearing was scheduled.

c. What classes of persons will benefit from the proposed rule change?

The rule change will benefit taxpayers by reducing the cost of holding hearings for respondents who intend to default on their application. Currently, the agency pays legal staff and pays a hearing officer from the Office of the Attorney General to hold a hearing in every case, including those where the respondent never replies and never intends to appear.

d. What is the probable economic impact of the proposed rule upon affected classes of persons or political subdivisions?

The agency anticipates minimal economic impact upon political subdivisions or affected classes because of implementation of the proposed rule change at this time. The most likely impact is a decrease in requests for evidence or witnesses in cases that will not be contested.

e. What is the probable cost to the agency to implement and enforce the proposed rule change?

The agency does not anticipate any cost to the agency to implement and enforce the rule as a result of the proposed change in the rule at this time.

f. What is the economic impact on any political subdivision to implement the proposed rule change? Will the rule require their cooperation in implementing or enforcing the rule?

The agency does not anticipate any economic impact on any political subdivision to implement the proposed rule change at this time.

- g. Will implementing the rule change have an adverse effect on small business as provided by the Oklahoma Small Business Regulatory Flexibility Act?

The agency does not anticipate any adverse economic impact on small business as a result of the proposed rule change at this time.

- h. What methods has the agency taken to minimize compliance costs? Are there any other methods which are less costly, nonregulatory, or less intrusive to achieve the purpose of the proposed rule change?

The agency does not anticipate any material costs and is not aware of any measures that would minimize costs as a result. The agency is not aware of any other methods that could achieve the intended goal at a reduced burden.

- i. Will the rule change impact the public health, safety, and environment, and is the change designed to reduce significant risks to the public health, safety, and environment? If so, explain nature of risk and to what extent the proposed rule change will reduce the risk.

The rule change does not concern public health, safety, or the environment.

- j. What detrimental effect will there be on the public health, safety, and environment if the rule change is not implemented?

The agency does not anticipate any detrimental effect on public health, safety, or environment as a result of failure to implement the proposed rule at this time.
