Dear Ms. Kimbro,

It is the desire of All Saints Catholic School to participate in the Lindsey Nicole Henry Scholarships for Students with Disabilities Program.

All Saints is a fully accredited school through the Oklahoma Catholic Schools Accrediting Association and through reciprocal agreement by the Oklahoma State Department of Education. The school has been in existence since 1996, and currently enrolls 450 students in Pre-Kindergarten through Grade 8. All homeroom teachers and administrators are certified by the State of Oklahoma. Of the 23 homeroom teachers and administrators, 20 have at least 3 years of teaching experience.

All Saints currently works with Norman Public Schools in providing speech therapy and special education tutoring to qualified students on ISP's. In addition, All Saints employs a full-time resource room teacher to assist with student tutoring, study skills for students with special needs, and coordination of efforts.

All Saints Catholic School adheres to the tenets of Title IX. In addition, All Saints admits students regardless of gender, race, color, physical disability, national and ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students.

The school currently has a $2.1 million dollar operating budget. An independent auditor audits the school's financial records annually.

In addition, the school cooperates with the county health department and the Norman Fire Department to ensure that the school meets health and safety codes. All Saints maintains an updated Crisis Management Handbook, and practices fire, tornado, evacuation and lock-down procedures throughout the school year. In addition, All Saints distributes and follows a school-wide disciplinary code.

If I can provide additional information, please feel free to contact me at (405) 447-4600.

Yours Truly,

Leslie Schmitt, M.Ed.
Principal
