

Ken Shelton highlights this year's OTA Encyclo-media Conference to be held at the Cox Convention Center on October 6 & 7, 2015.

Ken Shelton holds an MA in Education with a specialization in Educational Technology as well as New Media Design and Production. As a part of his active involvement within the Educational Technology community, Ken is an Apple Distinguished Educator and a Google Certified Teacher. Ken was also named to the California State Superintendent of Public Instruction Educational Technology Task Force.

Ken, both nationally and internationally, regularly gives keynotes, presentations, and leads workshops, many of which are hands-on, covering a wide variety of Educational Technology, Technology Integration, Digital Age Literacies, Creative Expression, Photography, Visual Learning, Visual Storytelling, and Instructional Design topics. He formerly worked as an educator for over 14 years, including teaching technology for 10 years at the middle school level.

Ken is currently a Director of Professional Development for EdTechTeam.
